The deposit proposed is for an Educational purpose and whether such purpose may be considered a legitimate object of public expenditure is for consideration in the administrative department — the Education Branch of the Case Comes under rule III of GO of 12 2-8, there is no objection to the extension of the benefit of the Saving order to this Funder

Permission to make further deposits until the amount reaches a lakh is asked for. It would be inconvenient to accept small amounts and it seems therefore desirable to impose a minimum limit regarding

As regards the agreement to be executed this will clear if a separate agreement is required in respect each instalment of deposit. The present form of the agreement does not seem to provide for the receipt of ~~the~~ deposition instalments - Please put up the file regarding the form of agreement —

Paper now in ~~ml~~

The President of the Mysore Lingayet Education Fund Association has applied for permission to deposit with Government the funds collected by the Association, under the rules recently passed for the acceptance of charitable endowment funds in perpetuity, carrying interest at 4 per cent The Funds now to be deposited amount to Rs 13,000 and the President requests that further deposits up to a maximum of one lakh of rupees, as allowed under para 1 of the rules, may also be accepted

The interest accruing from the deposit is intended to be utilised for the education of Lingayets in the Mysore State by awarding scholarships to deserving students The deposit is thus one to which the benefits of the new rules may be extended The Council is of opinion that the application of the President of the Association may be granted, subject to the conditions (1) that future deposits should be in even thousands of rupees and (2) that the Association will submit to Government an annual report of the administration of the Fund with an abstract of accounts The Council is also of opinion that the submission of annual reports and abstracts of accounts should be insisted on in the case of all future deposits

This may be approved
